

58,248 VOTERS HAVE THEIR SAY

Should all young people learn about AAls? The majority of voters say yes.

Visit www.votesforschools.com for the full story.

UP FOR DISCUSSION: MOVING UK PARLIAMENT

This week, VotesforSchools voters will be answering the question: "Should UK Parliament move around the country?"

Why not discuss what you think about this question at home? Are you for or against more first aid training?

THIS WEEK'S BIG READ: WHO IS KEMI BADENOCH?

Kemi Badenoch MP recently became the new leader of the Conservative Party, and the Leader of the Opposition. She was first elected as an MP for North West Essex in 2017.

Before becoming an MP, Kemi worked in other parts of Government, and before that she had jobs in journalism and finance. She studied both Computer Systems Engineering and then Law at university. As a child, she spent time living in the USA and Nigeria, and returned to the UK at 16.

COMPREHENSION CHALLENGE

- When was Kemi Badenoch first elected to Parliament?
- Which county does she represent in Parliament?
- Which sectors has Kemi worked in besides Government?
- What are Kemi's university qualifications?
- When in Kemi's life did she live outside of the UK?

COP29 UNDERWAY IN BAKU

COP29 is taking place in Azerbaijan's capital Baku from 11th - 22nd November. This is an important meeting on climate change attended by world leaders. They are expected to discuss a range of issues including how to limit global temperature rises.

TRUMP APPOINTS MUSK

US President-elect Donald Trump has picked Elon Musk to take a lead on Government cost-cutting when he returns to the White House next year. Tech billionaire Musk, who has called for huge spending cuts, will take on the role alongside Vivek Ramaswamy.

A PLOT TWIST

Children's reading in the UK has hit a "crisis" point, with the number enjoying it in their free time dropping to just one in three, a report suggests. The number of under-18s who say they enjoy reading has hit its "lowest level" since surveys began in 2005.

UP TO 115 POST OFFICES AT RISK

Up to 115 Post Office branches and hundreds of head office jobs are at risk as part of a shake-up of the business. The Communication Workers Union (CWU) said that it was "immoral" to propose such plans as the inquiry into the Horizon IT scandal continues.

